Kevin, Mark & Jim:

This email is quite overdue but I couldn't let it go any further. I am not a marathon writer by any stretch of the imagination, more of a cut to the chase type of guy....

I know you all deal with many people on a day to day basis however I would be willing to bet that the vast majority take your unparalleled efforts, trust & outstanding business character for granted. Well, I am here to tell you...not this guy. Aside from MJ Shelton's humble & respectable reputation that we have been so fortunate to build over the years, you guys have been the last missing piece to the puzzle & the best thing that has come to MJ Shelton since its first pay check. The day I moved from Wells Fargo to GVB was one of the most relieving days of my business career to date. You have been quick to accommodate in every situation, extremely simple to deal with and as professional yet personable as it gets. Bottom line... I will forever be grateful for the unique attributes of GVB and I appreciate all your efforts thus far as a partner in making my business grow and succeed.

I personally want to thank Kevin for all he has done. You are exceptional at what you do and I value our relationship.

I wish you all a successful 2013!!

Thank You!
